Refunds will not be granted after the conference has begun or for nonattendance. Substitutions are permitted at any time.

Top Reasons to Attend this Conference

- ▶ Review PRACTICAL APPROACHES to managing mold in buildings from a public health/risk perspective.
- ▶ Establish NEW BUSINESS CONTACTS and visit with colleagues.
- ▶ EMPOWER PRACTITIONERS to be better prepared and informed as to why certain measures need to be taken to address mold, based on degree of contamination.
- ▶ HOW TO address dampness, moisture, and mold based on degree of contamination and associated risk.
- ▶ Better UNDERSTAND the depth and premise of the new AIHA 2008 document from the primary authors of the book.
- ▶ Hear first hand what LEADING PROFESSIONALS have to say on the important issues you face.
- ▶ NETWORKING! The sharing of information and forming potential future collaborations are a key benefit you'll receive by attending this conference.
- ▶ Learn PRACTICAL BUILDING SPECIFIC approaches to addressing mold contamination from experts.
- ▶ Hear the LATEST RESEARCH AND APPLIED OUTCOMES (on a global basis) from an unprecedented list of national and international presenters comprised of Government, Health, Practitioners, and Academia.
- ▶ The knowledge gained by attending will assist you in MAKING BETTER DECISIONS for your organization.

EXHIBIT OPPORTUNITY

- ▶ There are a limited number of exhibit spaces available to insure a high ratio of attendees to exhibitor. To receive an Exhibitor Prospectus, contact: Alesia Bailey at alesia-bailey@utulsa.edu; 918-631-5246, or visit www.utulsa.edu/iaqprogram.
